THE LOCATION

Ideally placed as a central point, this delightful and popular village offers good commuting links as well as easy access to Dollar Academy. The Crook of Devon is situated on the A977 about 6 miles from Kinross to the Kincardine Bridge. It lies at a point where the River Devon takes a sharp turn westwards after flowing eastwards from the Ochil Hills and comprises the Old Crook, Tulliebole Mill and Waulkmill areas.

The area is steeped in history. Broomhill House is situated in the outskirts of a popular residential village to the West of the county town of Kinross. The village is well served by local shops and a filling station offering day-to-day provisions and all other facilities can be found in nearby Alloa or Kinross. Meals and drinks can be taken at the local Inn where on sunny days you can sit outside and enjoy the local ambiance. The area offers myriad country pursuits and equestrian facilities alongside an active community spirit, which makes good use of the village Hall. Fishing, hill walking, golfing are available nearby and cycling is a strong pastime in the area. Kinross offers most sporting and leisure facilities including swimming pools and gyms, bowling clubs, curling clubs, cricket clubs etc. The city of Dunfermline to the South offers cinema and Theatre along with major retail parks. Known as the gateway to the Highlands, Kinross-shire nestles around the stunning shores of Loch Leven. For a small County Kinross-shire is rich in history and natural beauty. Excellent schooling is available at both primary and secondary levels with Dollar Academy, Strathallan, Kilcraston and Graigclowan all within easy reach.
