

5 Steading View

LOSSIEMOUTH, IV31 6QL

5 Steading View presents an excellent opportunity to acquire a spacious and well-proportioned four-bedroom detached bungalow, set within a desirable semi-rural location on the outskirts of the popular coastal town of Lossiemouth.

Offering generous accommodation entirely on one level, the property is ideally suited to family living or those seeking the convenience of bungalow-style accommodation without compromising on space.

A welcoming entrance vestibule leads into the large main hallway, providing access to the principal living areas

The lounge is a bright spacious area, benefiting from abundant natural light and featuring French doors that connect seamlessly to both the hallway and the kitchen, creating an excellent flow throughout the home.

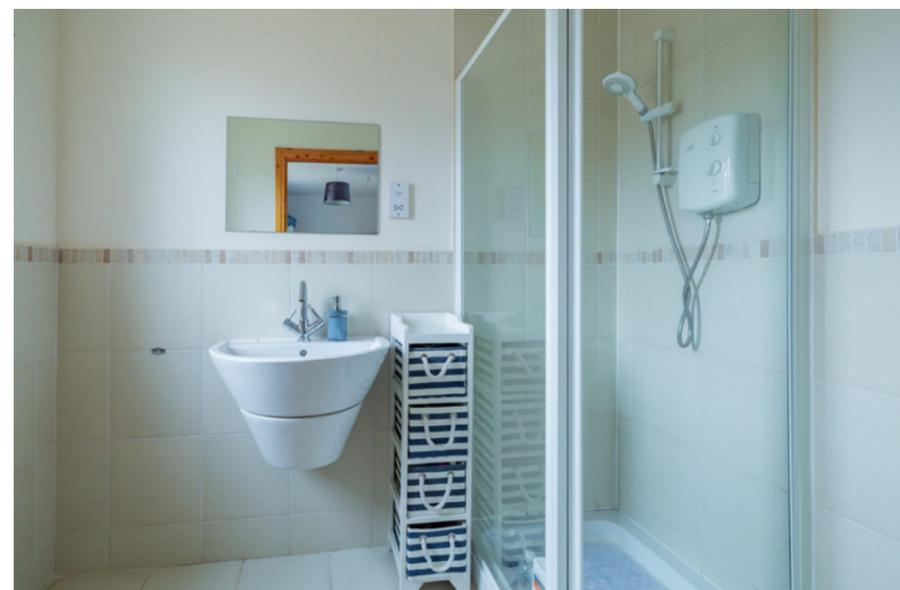

The kitchen is well equipped with ample cupboard space and work surfaces, an integrated dishwasher, a range cooker and a central island which provides a practical dining area. From here, access is gained to the sun lounge/conservatory, an inviting additional reception space overlooking the garden. A separate utility room, which houses the boiler, offers further storage and practicality, with a door leading directly to the rear garden.

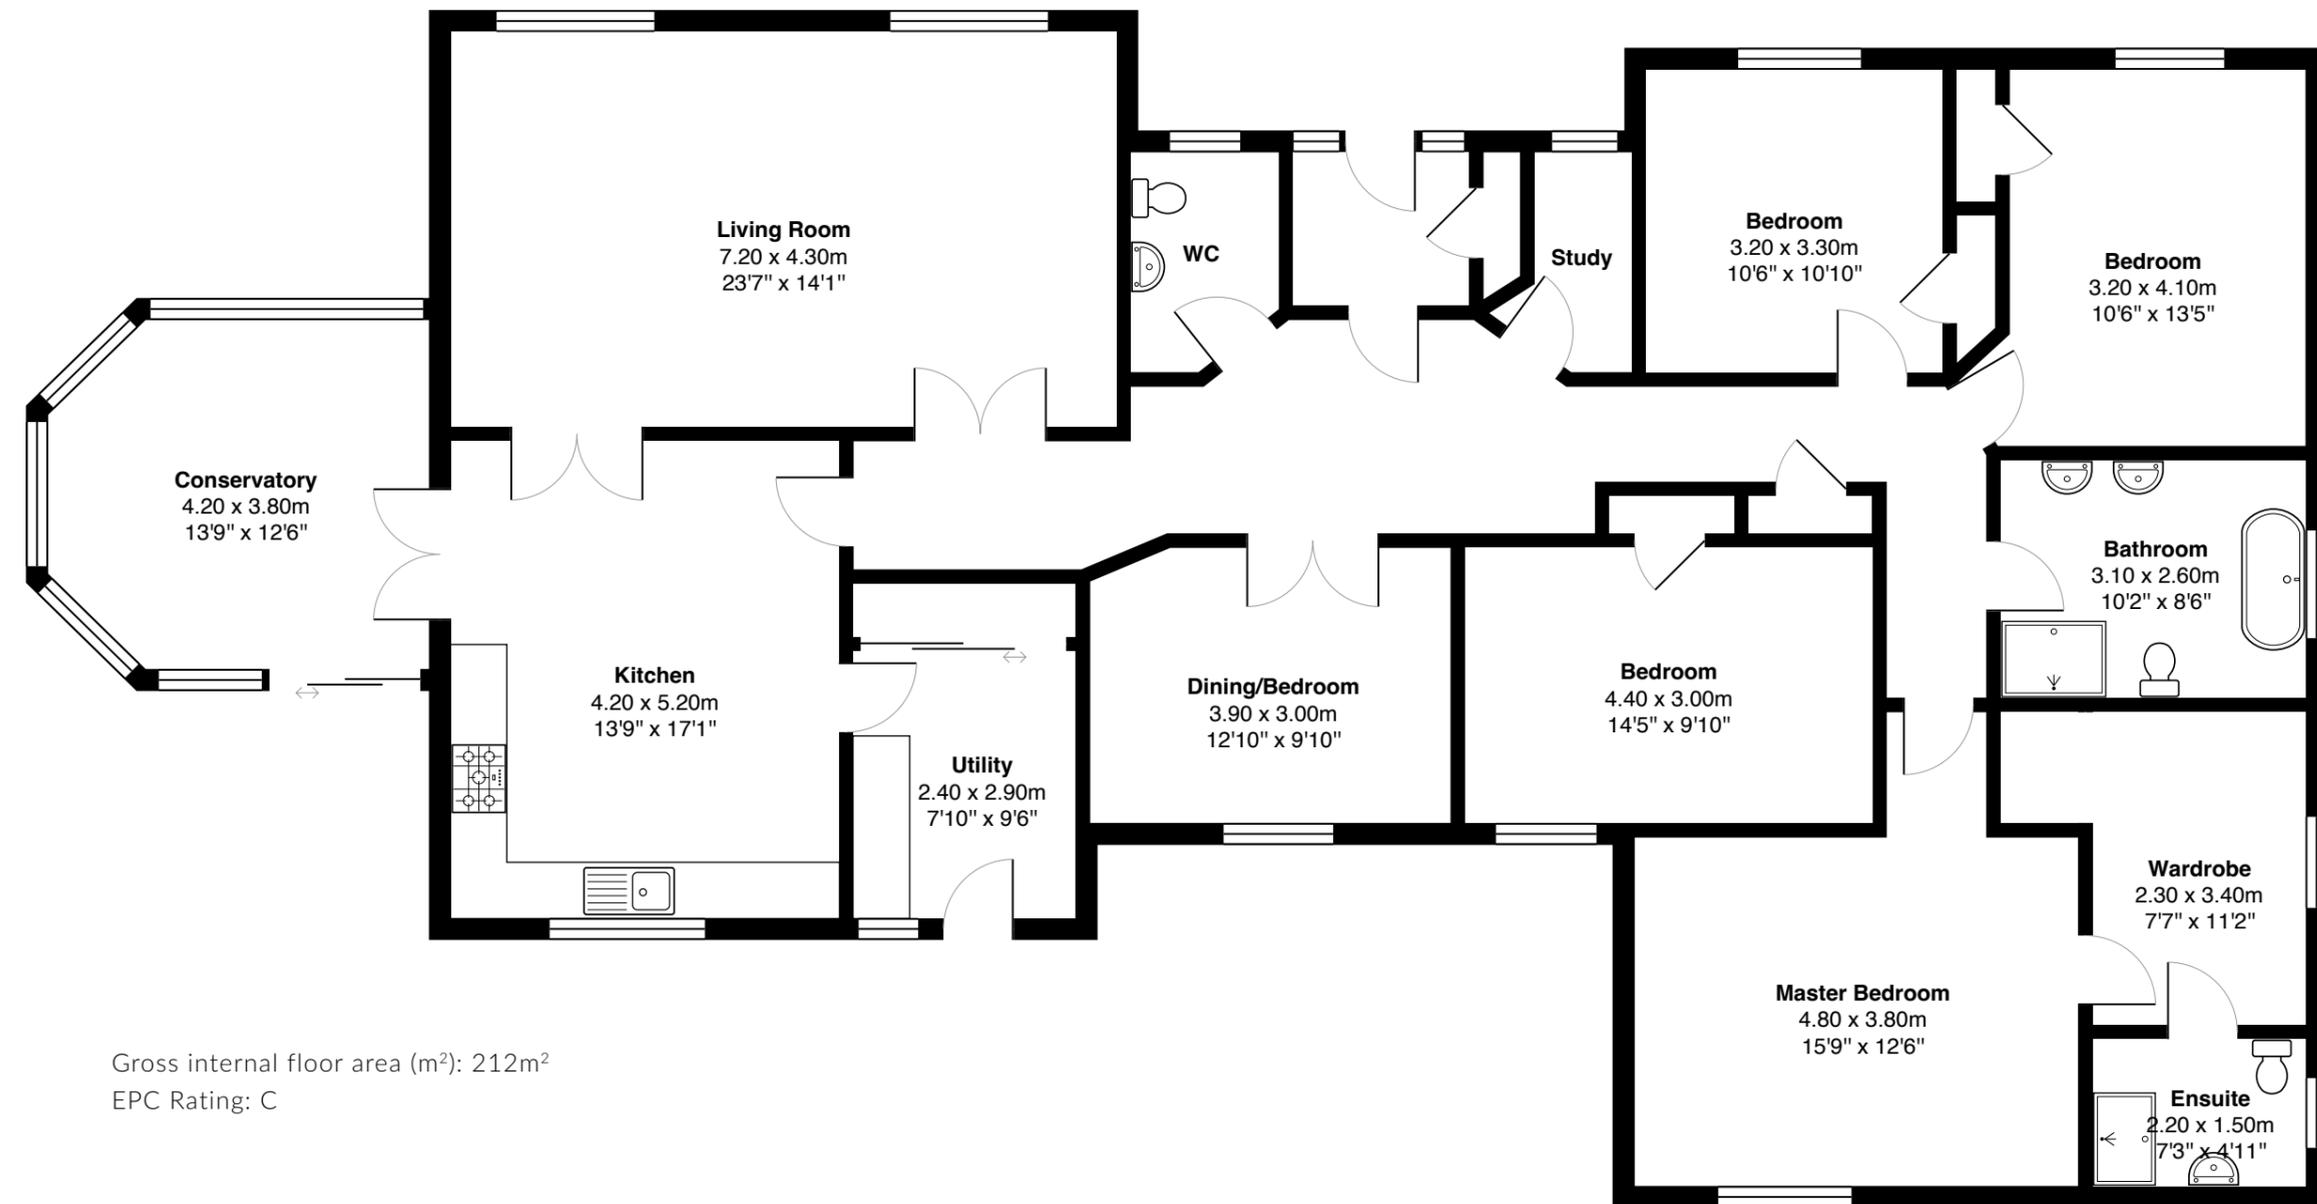

The main bedroom benefits from a walk-in dressing room and en-suite shower room. There are three further well-proportioned double bedrooms, a family bathroom comprising feature freestanding bathtub, separate shower cubicle, WC and wash hand basin, in addition to a guest cloakroom. The dining room is of a good size, offering flexibility for formal dining or alternative family use such as a playroom like the current set up. An office or study provides ideal space for home working or hobbies.

Lossiemouth is a highly desirable coastal town in Moray, celebrated for its outstanding seaside setting, strong community feel and excellent lifestyle amenities. Combining coastal charm with everyday convenience, it appeals to families, professionals, retirees and second-home buyers alike.

The town is renowned for its beautiful sandy beaches, including the expansive East Beach, popular for walking, swimming and water sports, and West Beach, which stretches towards the historic Covesea Lighthouse and offers breathtaking coastal scenery. These natural surroundings make Lossiemouth particularly attractive to outdoor and nature enthusiasts.

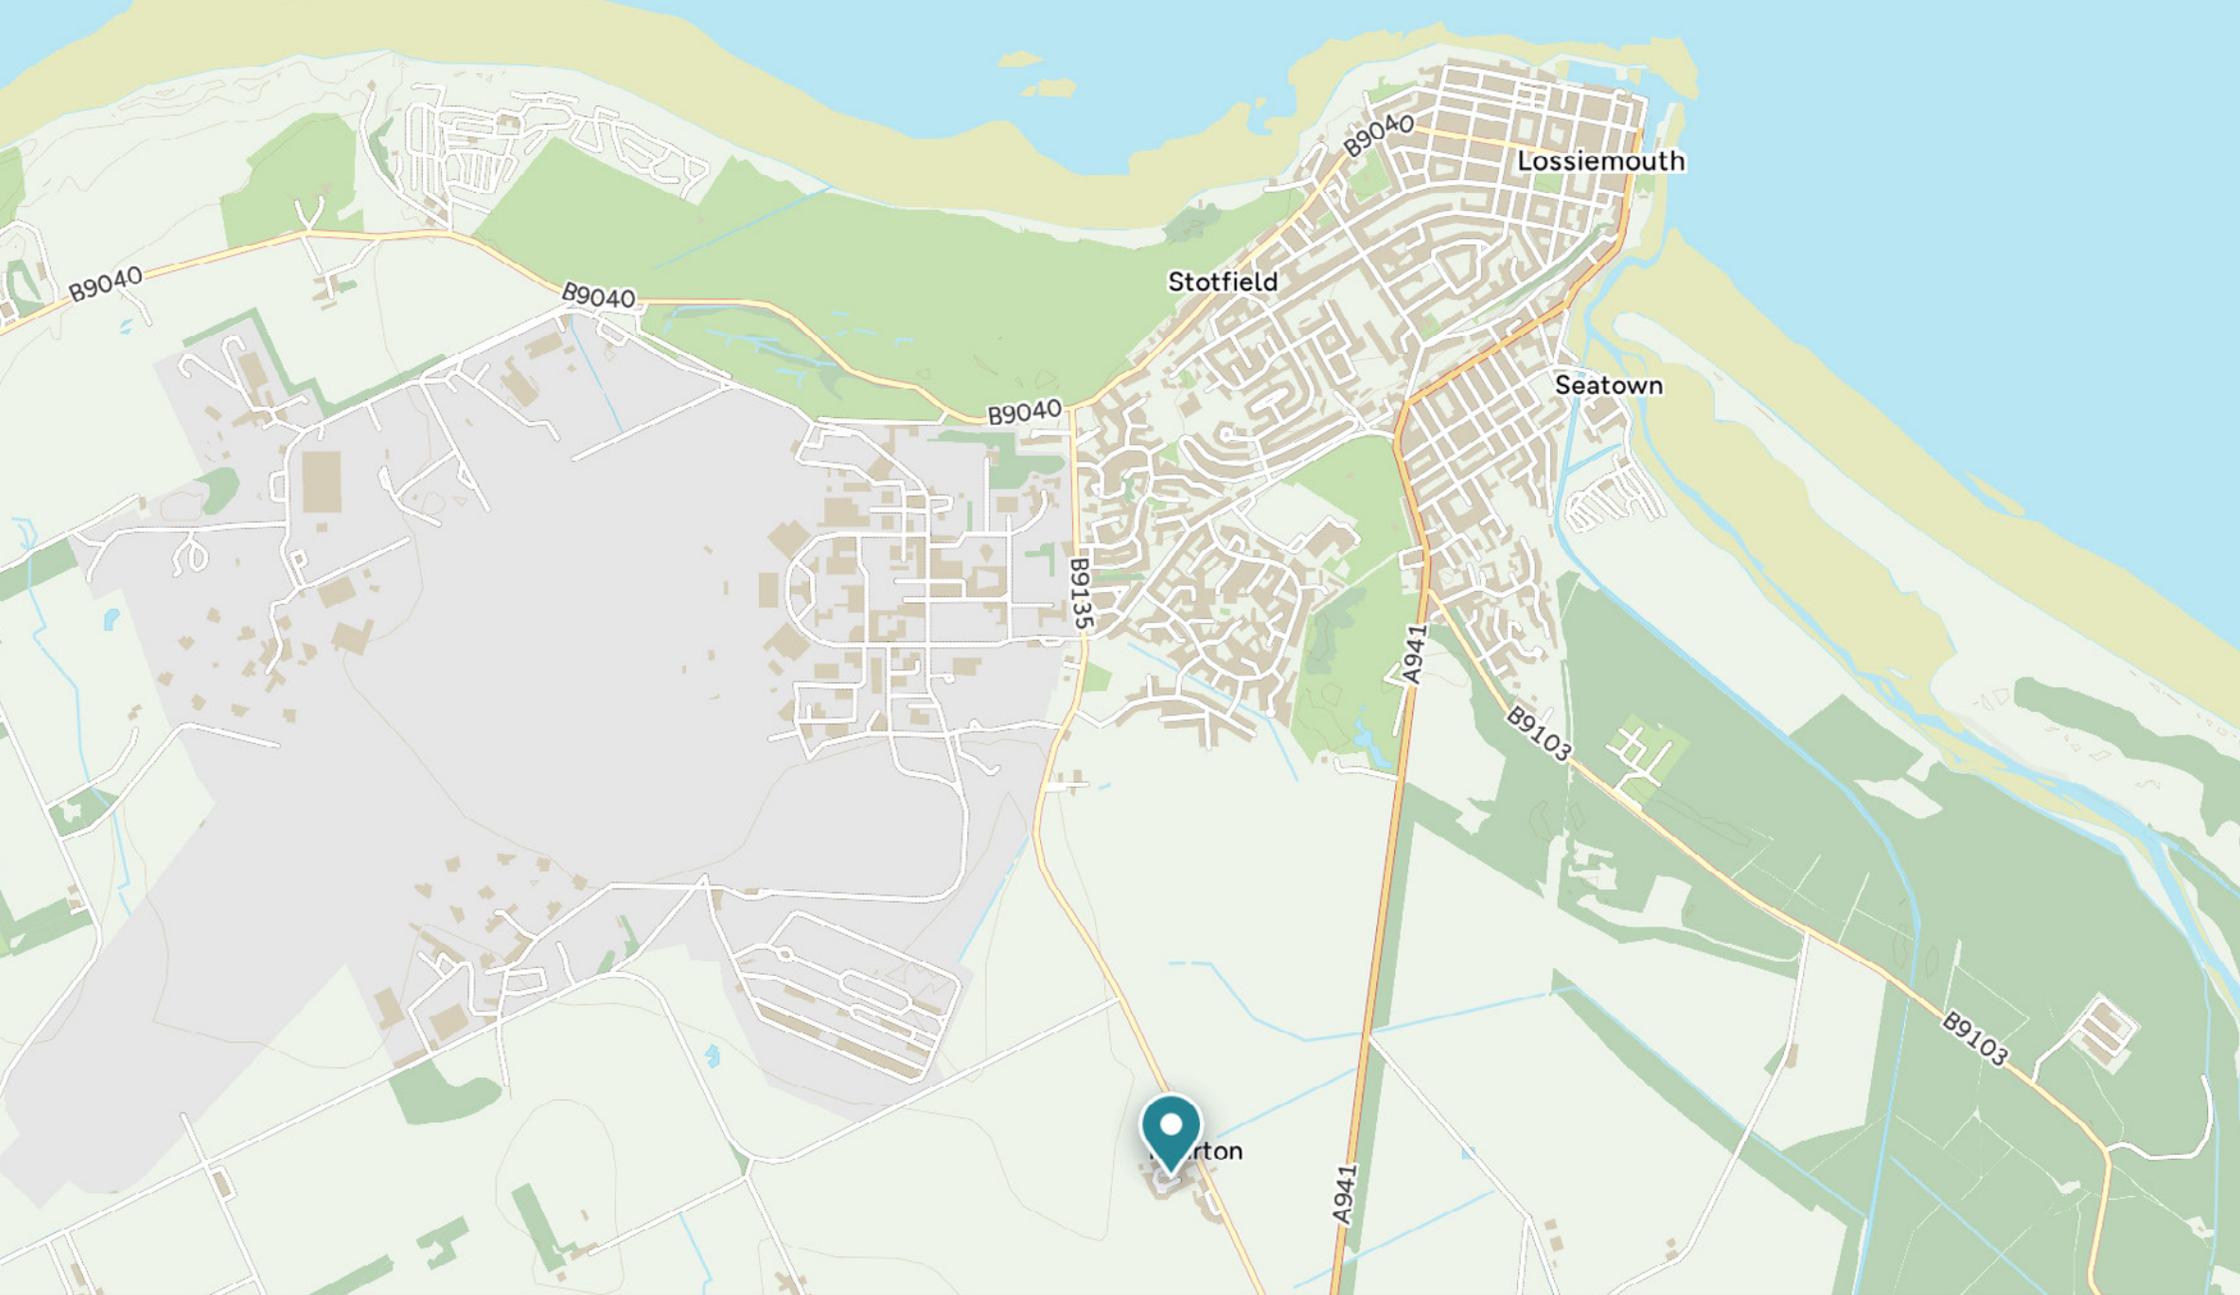

Lossiemouth has a proud maritime heritage, with its working harbour continuing to play an important role in local life. The town centre provides a good range of shops, cafés, restaurants and services, offering both traditional Scottish hospitality and modern dining options.

Educational needs are well catered for with local primary and secondary schools, while leisure facilities are plentiful. The highly regarded Moray Golf Club offers two championship links courses overlooking the coastline, drawing golfers from across the UK and beyond. The town also benefits from a range of sports clubs and community groups, including a well-supported Highland League football team, contributing to a strong sense of local identity.

Lossiemouth is well connected, with Elgin only a short drive away, providing rail links, larger retail options and further amenities. With ongoing investment in the Moray area and its continued popularity as both a residential and holiday destination, Lossiemouth remains an excellent choice for those seeking a balanced coastal lifestyle.
