THE LOCATION

Leith Walk is one of Edinburgh's most vibrant and well-connected areas, offering a lively mix of independent shops, cafés, and restaurants. Families benefit from strong local schooling, with Broughton Primary and Drummond Community High School both close by. The neighbourhood sits within easy reach of major destinations, including St James Quarter, the Omni Centre (with cinema), and popular eateries such as Vittoria's, Eleanore, and Valvona & Crolla.

Within easy walking distance of Edinburgh's city centre, residents can enjoy the best of both worlds, a lively urban setting surrounded by green spaces. Calton Hill, with its panoramic city views, is just minutes away, while Holyrood Park and Arthur's Seat provide miles of scenic walking and running routes. The peaceful Water of Leith and Pilrig Park also offer inviting spots for outdoor relaxation or exercise.

It is also a simple matter of a short walk into the city centre, with the option of using one of the many and frequent bus services that use this route, or the nearby McDonald Road tram stop. Waverley Station is around a 20-minute walk, making the area ideal for commuters and city explorers alike. Ferry Road gives access to the west as well as routes out to the east. In both these directions, there are direct links with the city bypass.
