Glenrothes is situated in the heart of Fife in East Central Scotland. It is located approximately equidistant between the cities of Edinburgh (32 miles) and Dundee (27 miles). Glenrothes is the administrative capital of Fife containing both the Fife Council and Fife Constabulary headquarters. It established itself as a major industrial centre in Scotland's silicon glen during the 1980's and 90's with several major electronic companies establishing in the town. Glenrothes is unique in Fife as the majority of the town's centre is contained indoors, the Kingdom Shopping Centre providing a great deal more than normal requirements.

The town has a variety of recreational facilities including the newly built Michael Woods regional sports centre, Balgeddie Fountain Spa and Hotel, and Civic Centre with theatre. The town has strong links with the main Scottish transport network with bus and Markinch train station having links to all major cities. Glenrothes has a variety of schools at both primary and secondary level with the newly Auchmuty High School being the popular choice.
