THE LOCATION

Gorebridge is a small town with an active and thriving community, situated in the county of Midlothian some 10 miles from Edinburgh, off the A7 (Galashiels Road). It is surrounded by open countryside and forms part of a crescent of similar small towns stretching from Musselburgh in the east through Dalkeith, Eskbank, Bonnyrigg, Loanhead, Roslin to Penicuik in the west.

Gorebridge itself has a good selection of shops and services, including banking and post office facilities, and there are also excellent amenities in the market towns of Bonnyrigg and Dalkeith. There is a Tesco Superstore nearby and a retail park at Straiton which has a variety of superstores including Ikea, Costco and Sainsburys. Gorebridge has a leisure centre with a variety of clubs and societies, a library, a bowling club and a park. There is also a swimming pool at nearby Newbattle.

In recent years, the road network has improved significantly, and as a consequence, the city bypass is within easy reach, and there is convenient access to the Scottish motorway network and Edinburgh International Airport. There is a regular and frequent bus service to Edinburgh itself, and the car journey takes between 20 and 30 minutes except at peak times.

All in all this is an excellent location for commuters who prefer a slightly more rural environment with all the benefits it offers.
