Craigieburn Guest House

DUNOON

Craigieburn Guest House is situated in the popular pocket of Dunoon which is a thriving town which blossomed in the 19th century to become a major Clyde seaside resort and a favourite holiday spot for Glaswegians. Throughout the summer months, many tourists still visit Dunoon and enjoy walks along the promenade or a cruise down the Clyde.

As one of the main areas, Dunoon offers a range of amenities including a hospital, library, leisure centre and a variety of shops and supermarkets. Primary and secondary schooling is available in the town. Sporting activities in the area include excellent sailing, golfing, walking and both fresh and sea water fishing. Two ferry terminals are situated nearby, with regular sailings to Gourock and McInroy's Point, allowing very easy access to Glasgow and surrounding areas. Dunoon can also be reached by road via the A82 from Glasgow.
