THE LOCATION

Dunbar has great transport links as the A1 provides a speedy route to Edinburgh to the west and south to Berwick-upon-Tweed as well as benefitting from a short walk to the beach. Just a short distance from the development, Dunbar train station is on the main Aberdeen to London East Coastline. Edinburgh is only twenty-two minutes away via train, and the rail route also links with southern towns and cities including Newcastle, York and London Kings Cross, which is a four-hour and twenty-minute journey.

The town is celebrated for its shopping with many independent retailers offering a wide range of goods, many produced and sourced locally, from quality food products such as speciality chocolates, fresh just-off-the-boat fish, smoked salmon, and organic fresh fruit and vegetables, to tasteful home furnishings, garden furniture, china and glassware, and sports accessories. Dunbar also boasts a bicycle shop, galleries, gift shops, picture framing, delicatessen, home hardware, pet foods, pharmacies, antiques, jewellers, bakeries and cafés.

For your weekly shop, Earls Gate is conveniently close to an ADSA superstore which is just a short walk away. There is excellent schooling at both primary and secondary levels.
