THE LOCATION

Many would consider Edinburgh's Leith area to be one of the city's best served suburban shopping centres. There is an exceptionally wide choice of shopping facilities as well as a number of banks, building societies and a Post Office.

A few minutes walk takes you to Ocean Terminal where further shops, restaurants and a cinema can be found. Leith is an established, independent community, and is certainly very much self-contained. There is an excellent choice of places to eat and drink, along with several entertainment venues, all with a bright and lively atmosphere. In addition, Leith has a vast array of amenities with several surgeries, a choice of dentists.

The Shore, the area of Leith which is situated on either side of the Water of Leith as it approaches the sea, has become a particularly fashionable area. From here, it is a simple matter of a twenty-five minute walk into the city centre, with the option of using one of the many and frequent bus services that use this route. Leith is perfectly located for easy travel to many parts of the city and beyond. Ferry Road gives very swift access to the west and Seafield Road leads out to the east. In both these directions, there are ultimately links with the City Bypass. Leith also has its own primary and secondary schools, the Academy being a community high school with access to adults during the day and evenings.
