THE LOCATION

The coastal town of Peterhead is steeped in history and the largest town settlement in Aberdeenshire with a population of approximately 18,500 residents. Founded in 1593, it developed as a port and functioned briefly as a fashionable 18th-century spa. By the early 19th century it had become the chief British whaling centre for Scotland and is currently one of the largest white fish markets in Europe.

Peterhead is the most Eastern port in Scotland with a thriving harbour and bustling fish market providing a service to the fishing, oil & gas and other maritime industries. The town centre is a short distance from the property and provides all that one would expect from modern-day living, including a multitude of local shops, pubs, restaurants, eateries galore and major supermarkets.

There are NHS facility's available with a choice of primary schools with higher education available at Peterhead Academy. You also have some superb recreational and leisure facilities all within easy reach and a multitude of activities for the outdoor enthusiast.

The local area and the town offer a comprehensive bus service with the city of Aberdeen and Dyce airport approximately 35 miles South of Peterhead and are easily commutable now that the Aberdeen Western Peripheral Route (AWPR) is open.

The East Coast Rail network operates from Aberdeen providing a link to the Central Belt, the South and beyond. National and International flights are provided from Dyce Airport.
