THE LOCATION

Dunbar, thirty miles east of Edinburgh on the A1, is renowned for its high sunshine record, its rugged coastline and attractive countryside. Dunbar became a Royal Burgh in 1370. The town is steeped in history and was one of the most famous Scottish fortresses in the Middle Ages. Its ancient castle ruins stand guard over the town's twin harbour.

The high street is surrounded by various shops, vennels and historic buildings and is full of character. Here you will find everything for all your daily requirements including banking and postal services. Dunbar has such a broad range of local amenities that there is no need to venture out of the town.

Dunbar Leisure Pool with its wave machine, flumes and other exciting water features, along with a health suite, sauna, solarium and steam room, offers just a few of the recreational facilities located within Dunbar. There are many fine golf courses within Dunbar itself and within the surrounding area, there are many other excellent championship courses.

The John Muir Country Park and the Lammermuir Hills offer scenic and tranquil landscapes rich in natural history. The clifftop trail captures the beauty of the countryside and its spectacular seascapes. Dunbar has all the ingredients for an energetic or if you prefer, a tranquil setting in which to set up home.

It is very easy to reach by road, rail and air. Dunbar is only half a mile from the main A1 trunk road. The inner-city line between Edinburgh and London passes through the town and the International Airport at Edinburgh is a pleasant hour's drive from Dunbar.
