The town contains the award-winning Hippodrome Cinema, a faithfully renovated 1912 working cinema showing the latest films daily. The Antonine Wall and the Kinneil House museum provide an insight into the earlier town and Bo'ness is of course host to the award-winning Scottish National Railway Museum with steam trains running during the summer from the restored town railway station.

The town centre has a selection of privately owned shops, cafes, pubs, hairdressers, takeaways as well as a Lidl and a Tesco whilst, from the house, there is easy access to the waterfront and the foreshore walks, a paradise for dogs. The John Muir Way, the long-distance footpath connecting Edinburgh to Glasgow, via Bridgeness Castle one way and The Kelpies the other is five minutes walk away.
